

GASTRONOMIC DELIGHTS

Three successful meals were held yesterday to provide Winter Camp participants with 4084 calories thus meeting their energy needs for the day.

Members enjoyed the normal fare of chicken noodle soup during the Oakes' Lunch. As usual the lunch was 15 minutes late in keeping with traditional Oakes' style.

Supper brought members to land down south as they donned their sombreros and sat down for a Mexican feast.

Little Ozzie's Pizza Parlor continued its fine tradition of serving the best pizza in town Little ozzie was off during the affair, but up and coming chef Mark Bollman, filled the void to become a true Pizza artist.

LATRINE COMPETITION BEGINS

Members attending Winter Camp have begun their fierce competition to determine champion latrine users during the second annual contest. As of noon today, several front runners are taking an early lead in the competition.

MOST TIME SPENT:	The Beast	15:11 Min
LONGEST VISIT:	Eddie Rose	11:00 Min
SHORTEST VISIT:	Mark Bollman	29.6 Sec
TP CONSERVATION:	Mark Bollman	3.0 pc

NOTE: Only fecal activities are to be included in the competition. Time spent includes time when full contact is maintained with seat. Please use stall number 1 and 2 for defecation only. Urine may be passed in stall #3 as the traditional urine receptacle is often frozen.

SAYING FOR THE DAY

From Lodge Chief Kelly Bancroft-Cheerfulness is not a worthy trait.

Editors Note: Cheerfulness is at the very foundation of the Arrow. What do you think Kelly means? Our staff was dumbfounded.

WINTER CAMP TRIVIA
