Welcome to Winter Camp XXI

UFO Sighted!?

Boy did the GWO ever pull a fast one on unsuspecting Winter Campers! You can do quite a lot with a big balloon, some lightsticks and the "restricted box". In fact, some members of your beloved GWO were even mistaken for aliens. Don't let yourself get taken in by these UFO/Alien loving knitwits. UFOs don't exist and if you need any "convincing" just ask, we will be happy to explain it to you.

Goonopoly?

In a furious game of the Star Wars (Cool!) version of Monopoly. The competition was fast and furious. The game enjoyed by Steve "I wannabe a Goon" Perri, Lou "Way too Lucky" Pezet, Mark "I find my lack of cash disturbing" Hunt, John "Am I a good winner or what?" Howey. The game was fairly evenly matched after the first couple of trips past GO with no player having a "set". However, some shrewd (intimidating?) dealing by Howey, Perri traded a Hoth card away in exchange for some orange card. Both those players now had a set. However, Steve only being a GIT, could not handle 3 goons at once and was soon bankrupted. Howey and Hunt built furiously but that damn Lou kept missing the spaces. However, Hunt was a frequent fixture on the Howey Hoth Spaceports. It wasn't long after that Howey had amassed a huge fortune (about 5Gs man!) and ruined business for the rest of them. Anyone wanna play?
